

The Seashores - Toronto Real Estate

The Shorelines Homes available for sale & The Seashores True Estate Toronto

A popular tourist destination and located on the East-central district of Toronto. The Seashores is characterized by many independent specialty stores.

Pickering, Ajax The houses on the side streets take on a new Victorian, Edwardian large-scale style and some locations contain row-houses and low-rise apartments. The uninterrupted sandy shoreline is a great tourist attraction. Directly north of the main 'Beaches' is the upper seashores which stretch to Victoria Park in the east.

The Beach locations True Estate escalate in recent and this has forced many working people to move to the further east. For anyone looking to enjoy a quiet life, The Seashores is definitely a first choice. The neighborhood has a family feeling and is considered one of the most beautiful and tightly knit communities in Toronto. The residents are also privileged to have well-maintained housing stock. Among the most spectacular homes in The Beach locations are those that are found lining Glen Manor Drive. This street is actual the most exclusive address and moving to this neighborhood is not cheap. Semis located on Queen have an asking price of $400,000. On the grounds of the old Greenwood Racetrack, mansions have been shown to rise quickly to the staggering $1 million.

Pickering, Ajax The Seashores has a wide range of actual estates that can range from custom-built detached residences, sparkling low-rise condominiums to gleaming mansions. The neighborhood is also the best-developed piece of waterfront. All new housing projects have stocked retail ambitions. Indeed, The Beach is more like a lakeside resort that a big city neighborhood.