Match Preview & Teams Analysis:

Pakistan Under 23 Cricket Team have lost their first match of Asian Cricket Council Emerging Teams Cup 2013 against India while Afghanistan Cricket Team have won their first match of ACC Emerging Teams Cup 2013 against Nepal in a nail biting match which was decided in a last over.

This is an important match for both teams specially for Pakistan U-23 Team if they lost than their chances yo reached into the Semi Finals of ACC Emerging Cup 2013 are very rare so we can say that its a must win game for Pakistan Under 23 Cricket Team. Pakistan U23 Cricket Team is a good team but they are not consistent performer.

Pakistan U-23 Cricket Team's weak point is their batting they have Babar Azam, Azeem Ghuman and Umar Waheed only three specialist batsmen and remaining all batsmen can bowl as well and they heavily depends upon Skipper Hammad Azam and Mohammad Nawaz in batting department. Pakistan Under 23 have strong bowling line up so toss will play an important role because Pakistan U23 Cricket Team will very happy if they will bowl 2nd. On the other hand Afghanistan is the best associate team of ICC and if they perform like this in more than two years than they became the complete member of ICC and also give the test staus very soon.

Afghanistan have some wonderful batsmen and bowlers in their team who are performing consistingly very well since the last ICC T20 World Cup 2012. Mohammad Nabi, Mohammad Shehzad, Karim Sadiq and Nowroz Mangal can bat very well while Hamid Hasan, Mohammad Nabi and Dowlat Zardan can bowl well. So it will be a wonderful contest between Pakistan U-23 vs Afghanistan Live Scorecard ACC Emerging Teams Cup 2013 odi match on 19 Aug 2013 at Singapore.
