Previously on Devious Maids Season 1 Episode 8 "Missing the Baby", Genevieve lies about her age; Rosie starts working at the Powell's house; Carmen learns that Odessa is hiding something; Marisol goes with Taylor to a fertility clinic.

On this week's Episode title "Scrambling the Eggs", Evelyn blackmails Rosie so she can spend more time with baby Tucker; Marisol discovers some new information about Flora; Zoila gets upset when Genevieve presents her with an interesting proposition for Valentina; Carmen is troubled by Alejandro's reaction to Odessa's illness.

Lifetime will premiere its highly-anticipated new drama "Devious Maids," executive produced by Marc Cherry ("Desperate Housewives") and Eva Longoria ("Desperate Housewives"), on Sunday, June 23, at 10PM ET/PT. The ensemble all-star cast, Ana Ortiz ("Ugly Betty"), Dania Ramirez ("Entourage"), Roselyn Sánchez ("Without a Trace"), Edy Ganem ("Livin' Loud") and Judy Reyes ("Scrubs"), portray five maids with ambition and dreams of their own while working for the rich and famous in Beverly Hills.

In "Devious Maids," murder and mayhem collide in the mansions of Beverly Hills' wealthiest and most powerful families. Class warfare has never been as fun and dirty as it is in the tony enclave where the staff is as clever, witty, outrageous and downright devilish as their employers. Whoever holds the dirt holds the power, and before the season is over, illicit affairs will be revealed and deep dark secrets exposed as we learn the sordid details behind a shocking murder of a beloved housemaid.
