

In the Name of Allah, the merciful and exalted. Peace be upon the One who was sent with a sword as a mercy for the world. Peace be on the Companions, the lions of combat. Peace be upon the allies of Allah who can never be humiliated.

The Pakistan army for many years has been presented to the Ummah as an army of Mujahideen protecting the Muslims. The minds of the Muslims have been corrupted by the media and the self proclaimed "Defence and security analysts". The deluded scholars also have helped the army on its ungodly path, some claiming they'll liberate Al-quds and nuke Israel back to the stone age. These miserable ones believe they'll conquer India(Ghazwa e Hind) and claim to be the ones that were mentioned by Rasulullah in his hadith. The Muslims have been deceived for many years by these apostates who are fighting with the crusaders against Islam. But with the grace of Allah, the veil has been lifted from the eyes of the sincere muslims and they can see clearly the apostasy and the realty of this filthy army. They are greedy, farthest from Islam, their lust for Money and liquor is well known, No doubt, there are sincere people among them, who have tried to implement sharia but their voices are suppressed and they are silenced forever. Zia ul haq is one glaring example.

The forefathers of the present day Pakistan army fought against the Muslims in india alongside the British and were instrumental in wiping out Muslim rule from India. They fought in the battle of Plassey. They massacred Muslims in east Pakistan in '71 before they were humiliated. They were supported by pro British politicians like Jinnah who was a imamite shia(Kaafir by the consensus of the Scholars; Imam Sam'ani said, " The ummah has a consensus on the Takfeer of Imamite Shia because the believe the Prophete's companions are misguided and reject their consensus and attribute to them things that are unbefitting of them) and later went on to become the founder of Pakistan. Contrary to popular belief, Pakistan was created in the intrest of America and Britain and not the Muslim Ummah. They claimed to implement shari'ia but later went on to govern the country with Manmade laws. To this day their apostate government claims to have an Islamic constitution. A notorious battalion of Pakistan's Army called Guides Cavalry(Formed in 1846 by lieutenant Harry Burnett Lumsden) still wears a red piping on their collars to commemorate the wounding of their officers by the Indian freedom fighters (referred to as mutineers by the British) during the war of Indian Independence[1]. The Pakistan Army has been one of the most valuable assets to the crusader alliance in their war on Islam. They have killed countless Mujahideen after using them to weaken their enemies. The sincere brothers from the Mujahideen are portrayed as RAW agents and then killed. This army not only kills the Mujahideen but also civilians, carrying out massacres in SWAT, tribal areas and Islamabad.

The apostate army used the Brothers from Kashmir, fed them to India under an Intelligence sharing agreement and not only that even bombed them to appease their masters in America.

They Handed over Sister Aafia Siddiqui to the crusaders, who raped her repeatedly and tortured her. They Killed AQ leaders, dismantled the Islamic emirate of Afghanistan and yet they claim to be the Saviours of the Ummah. Dear brothers and sisters, we need to pit things in perspective. Our allegiance is to Allah and his Messenger (Peace be upon him). {And of the people are some who say, "We believe in Allah and the Last Day," but they are not believers. They [think to] deceive Allah and those who believe, but they deceive not except themselves and perceive [it] not. In their hearts is disease, so Allah has increased their disease; and for them is a painful punishment because they [habitually] used to lie. And when it is said to them, "Do not cause corruption on the earth," they say, "We are but reformers."} (Quran 2:8-11)

This phenomenon results in a well-organized system in the Army called the "chain of command". While their sway over internal military affairs within the ranks of Pakistan are not of the orchestrate nature, they are certainly acquainted with Pakistan's leadership.

"Right from the induction into Pakistan's Army, recruits are made to idolize the Crusader armies as the height of professional excellence. As an incentive, top cadets from the Pakistan Military Academy are sent to Royal Military Academy Sandhurst, UK for further training. A major portion of military educational curriculum taught in the Pakistan Army institutions is based upon campaigns and tactics of the Allied Armies during the World Wars. Officers who perform well in these institutions are promoted to higher ranks and further selected for foreign courses in the military institutions primarily in USA and UK where their loyalties to the Crusader armies are further ascertained. Qualification from the Crusaders' military institutions is one of the pre-requisites to become a General in the Pakistani Army. As an example of this phenomenon, we can look at the career of present Chief of Army Staff General Ashfaq Parvez Kiani. Kiani first studied at the Military College Jhelum (MCJ); a notorious institution inaugurated in 1922 by the British Prince of Wales that starts grooming the children as young as 12 with a dream of becoming a General in the Pakistani Army. Kiani was then trained at the Pakistan Military Academy Kakul. During his military career, he acquired higher education in the Pakistan at Command and Staff College Quetta and the National Defence University Islamabad. Then he was further trained in various American military institutions that include the United States Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia; the Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas and the Asia- Pacific Center for Security Studies, Honolulu, Hawaii, USA. After grooming the suitable Pakistani Army officers, the Crusaders lift them to the position of Generals and then control them through the carrot and stick policy. If Generals follow the agenda of their masters, they are showered with wealth and praises and if the Generals are not efficient in performing their job, they are rebuked with the threats of assassination. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said: "Nations will call each other, as people make invitations to a meal, to make a concerted attack on you." Someone asked: 'Will this happen because of our being small in number?' Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم answered: "Rather, you will then be great in number, but as powerless as woodchips or straw carried in a flood. Allah will remove fear of you from the hearts of your enemies and implant in you love of this world and hatred of death.”⁶ For the Pakistani Army, it is a lust for this world and a fear of death. In addition to education and training, the Western powers influence Pakistan’s Army through military laws. The civilian laws of the Pakistani state are already un-Islamic and have stemmed from the colonial laws of British rule, yet the Pakistani Army has its own independent laws that are, at occasions, outside the jurisdiction of civilian laws. These military laws are compiled in the Manual of Pakistan Military Law (MPML) that consists of draconian orders set by the British to subdue the masses of the Indian population. The influence of the Crusaders over the Pakistani Army is also evident from the fact that the ranks of the Pakistani and British Army are kept exactly the same, emphasizing their common origin. However, in shoulder badges, the crown has been replaced by a star and crescent, perhaps to give an “Islamic look” to an otherwise slave army.”^[2] The current army chief Gen. Raheel Sharief who He is also a graduate of the prestigious Royal College of Defence Studies, United Kingdom.

More recently Pakistan Army raided a religious school in NWFP, killing more than 83 students, accusing them of terrorism. Most of these students were under 14 years of age and no evidence of any weapon or suspicious activity was found. Government also banned journalist to enter in the premises of bombed school. Ironically, these people condemned the TTP for the attack on a school in Peshawar. We are not calling for killings of children or women but the truth needs to be spoken without any fear and without hiding anything. Pakistan army has received 20 Billion aid from the crusader forces to fight the Mujahideen.

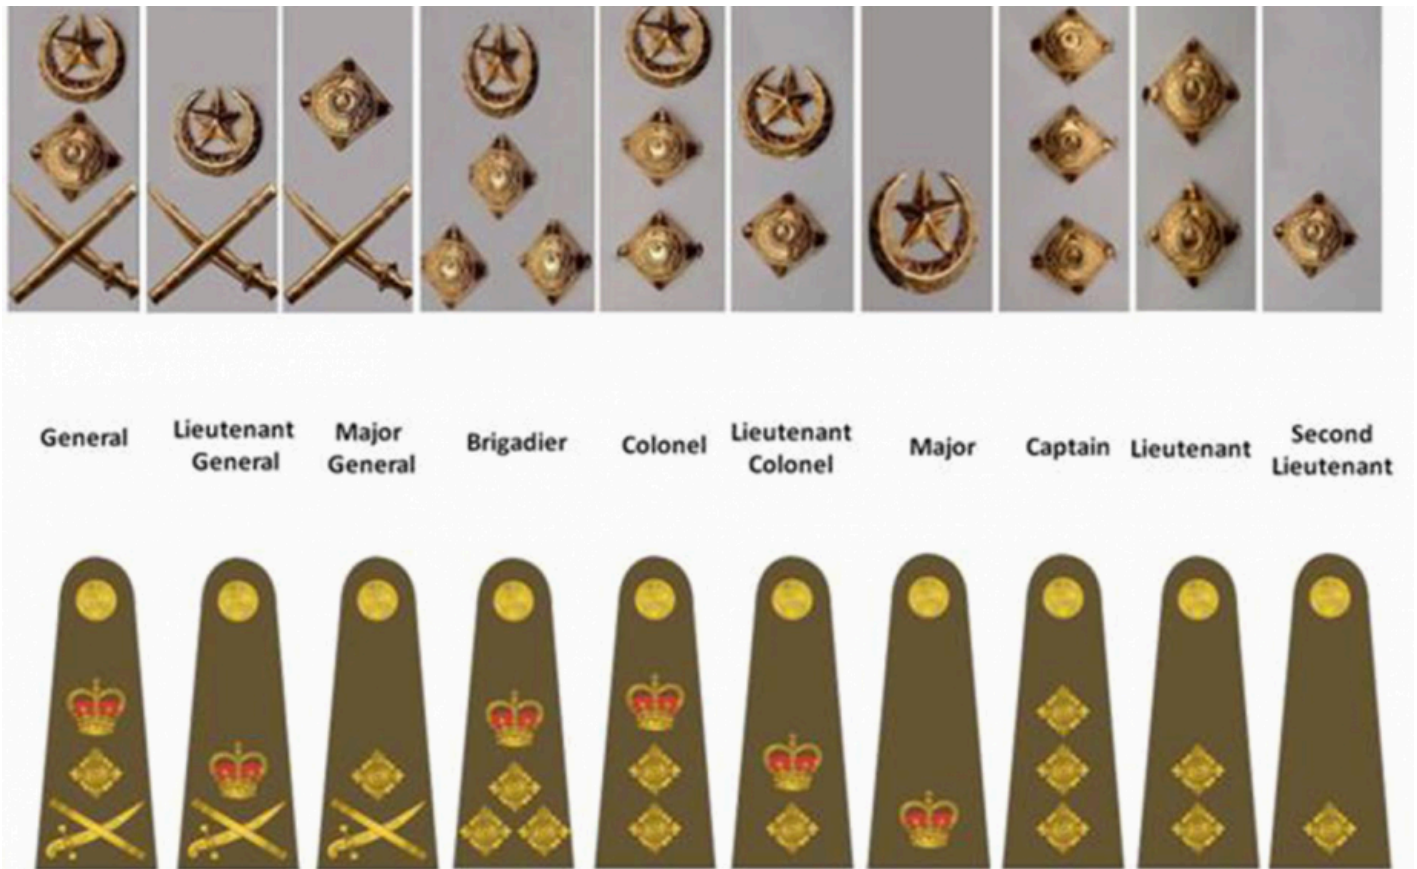

US House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Committee member Alan Grayson said that “these strikes would not be possible if Pakistan did not facilitate them.”^[3]

The state of Pakistan is in shambles, its people indulging in prostitution, drinking, homosexuality, their hearts devoid of the fear of Allah. Pakistan Army is an apostate army. “O you who have believed, do not take the Jews and the Christians as allies. They are [in fact] allies of one another. And whoever is an ally to them among you - then indeed, he is [one] of them. Indeed, Allah guides not the wrongdoing people.” Ibn Hazm in his tafseer said, ““Whosoever amongst the Muslims goes to the kuffar who are in a state of war against the Muslims and offers them his help against the Muslims; So this person himself becomes a Murtad.” The HUKM on such a person is;

- 1) Whenever possible, it is recommended to kill him to save Muslim society from harm.
- 2) His wealth is halal to be taken away from him and used.
- 3) His nikah to a Muslim woman is invalidated.” (Al-Mahala La ibn Hazm, 11/20)

We ask Allah(azzawa jal) to guide the Muslims of Pakistan and the world to haqq. We ask Allah to destroy the Murtadeen and disgrace them. We ask Allah to inflict them with diseases and calamities.
