

Use clash of clans cheat to increase your winning possibility

Clash of clans appears to be the most addicting games among today's youth. This complimentary to play game allows the gamers to rob each other's citizens with dragons, barbarians and wizards. However if you want to keep yourself safe and win the game, there are some clash of clans cheat that will help you stay ahead of your pals.

1. Know which resource to rob in multiplayer game:.

In the multiplayer battle which no doubt you will be a part of, there are a certain percentage of resources which are obtainable from storage locations or drills. It includes.

100 % of what is stored in the town hall.

50 % of what is stored in elixir or the gold collector.

20 % of what is stored in the elixir or gold storage.

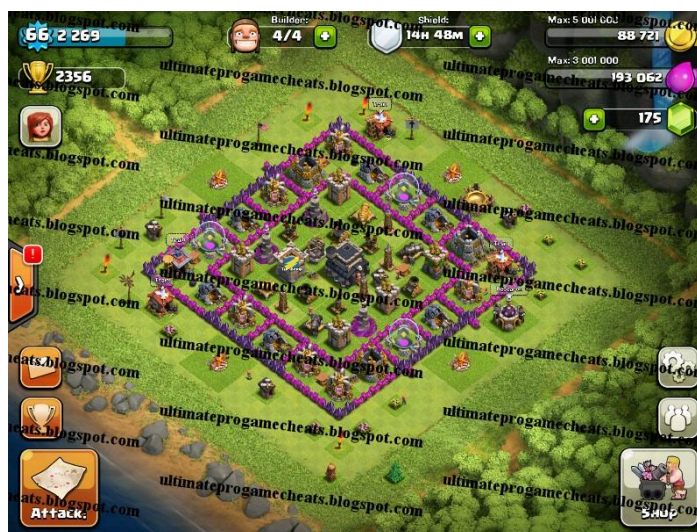

75 % of dark elixir that is stored in dark elixir drill.

and lastly 5 % of dark elixir stored in dark elixir storage.

However, the overall available loot can be reduced if your opponent's town hall level is lower than yours. If your challenger's town hall loot is greater than you, the loot quantity that you will certainly get when you win increases.

2. Defend the base with bunch of walls:.

Just as you start the video game, you will certainly have access to the walls. Simply, try to upgrade it to level three as quick as you can.

3. Keeping the trophies even after you end a battle:.

If you want to wave the white flag before the raid to start, go ahead. This way you can keep your trophies intact as long as you don't deploy the troops or cast spells. Make sure that your surrender alternative is not noticeable.

4. Get free elixir and conserve offline:.

You should remember that this clash of clan hacks works just when you have 30 seconds from updating your troop and entire military. This means you will certainly get complimentary elixir. In case you want to save it offline, here what you need to do. If your camp is full and then fill your barracks with bombers, inspect. This way you can get offline with 100,000 elixir instead of 300,000. Simply discharge the barracks and you can get back your elixir once you get back.
