A day-to-day user with this charging device comments, "I have a Samsung Galaxy note 4 while using the "Wireless Charging" version within the S-View Cover/Case. Right After I purchased it, I purchased 2 Qi chargers, that one together with a Koolpad. This one is undoubtedly the more likely of these two, so much in fact which i returned the Koolpad and got a new 2nd CHOETECH charger. The opposite charger was very picky about exactly how you lined the device on the pad, but the CHOETECH one is great. Utilizing its relatively small size and three coils, it really almost doesn't matter how you will place the phone into it, it appears as if it merely always works. Perhaps not as quick to charge in this way.?, though it even works together the s-view cover folder over in the phone?
