Preschool and Daycare

Preschool and daycare both support working parents by caring for young children. Preschools, for ages 3 to 5, focus on early education with structured activities that prepare kids for school. Daycares offer care for infants through school-age children, providing a safe environment with routines that include play and basic learning, ensuring children's well-being and development. Learn more: https://www.kidozone.co.in/