

What is the importance of the Nitaqat program in Saudi Arabia?

Saudi Arabia's labour market has undergone significant reforms to address employment challenges and economic diversification. One such initiative is the Nitaqat program, designed to boost national employment and reduce reliance on expatriate workers. This program categorises companies based on their Saudization levels, influencing hiring practices and business operations. Read the article to know more.