

TROPICAL STYLE IN INTERIOR DESIGN - HOUSEDESIGN

1. What is tropical style?

Tropical style is a style of interior design inspired by tropical lands, with endless green of the sea, sky, tropical forests, ... A space designed according to Tropical style will bring the quiet atmosphere, tranquility of a paradise island.

This style is more special than other interior design styles in that it uses the dominant green color and most will use natural textures such as palm leaves, coconut leaves. Comfort, relaxation, intimacy are all emotions that Tropical style in interior design brings to your living space.

2. The main points of tropical style

2.1. About color

Interior design style Tropical often use mainly blue colors. Blue here is the blue of the sky, the sea, the leaves, the trees, ... You can arbitrarily mix colors together in a tropical style, sometimes the colors are bright, gentle, sometimes it is The colors are quite bold and sharp. In Vietnam, Tropical interior design styles are modified to suit the weather and monsoon climate. Therefore, architects will often design with more colors, not only green but also orange, yellow, red or purple, ...

Refer to the related article of Housedesign:

<http://bit.ly/2QC7MR3>

2.2. Use bonsai as a ornament

As Housedesign mentioned above, it is considered appropriate to use trees as decorative objects for tropical interior design. Because this style is created mainly by natural materials: palm leaves, banana trees, ...

If you do not have the conditions to create real tropical plants, you can use fake trees or wallpaper, patterns printed on the fabric. In general, the Tropical design style can be applied to any interior space. For example: living room, outside area, lobby, bedroom or kitchen, ...

2.3. About material

Most of the materials that make up the Tropical style in interior design are of natural origin, from silk, willow, seagrass to rattan and teak. These materials have many utilities to use and are highly aesthetic.

In addition, a number of other materials are also included to adorn your tropical space: carpets made from natural fibers, motifs depicted in plants, pineapples and animals. , shells in the tropics, ...

Read the article here:

<https://housedesign.vn/phong-cach-thiet-ke/noi-that-tropical/>

