What you can get from our cleaning services in Ottawa?

With a wide range of cleaning services, we're earning satisfaction in both commercial and residential places. Here's a list of all services that we've mastered during all working years:

Ottawa Office cleaning

Workplaces are the hotspots of infectious germs due to a diverse range of workers belonging to different areas. Due to the pandemic, everyone is more concerned about their health. Therefore, Everything Cleaning has approached to rescue all people of Ottawa from the devastating effects of COVID-19 by applying various disinfection techniques. Our team of professionals is following all instructions and safety measures that W.H.O and Canada Health standards have suggested for everyone.

Of course, a clean environment catalyzes the performance of employees and yields fruitful results for organizations. Often, offices are reluctant to avail cleaning services to avoid risks of contamination.

In that regard, keep aside all your fears because we always test every member before sending them to your place. So, stop worrying and start hiring.

From cleaning all floors to carpets, windows to doors, washing office interior to exterior, we're taking the responsibility of all cleaning tasks. Our Ottawa office cleaning services are turning your workplaces into peaceful areas to work.

Ottawa move-in and move-out cleaning services

We're working on a mission to deliver comfort at doorsteps for people living in Ottawa. From regular cleaning services to assisting in move-in and Ottawa move-out cleaning, we will accompany you in all your moments.

If you're planning to change your living area then we're just one call away. Our team of professionals is well aware of your requirements and will meet your expectations through their expertise. Undoubtedly, cleaning nooks and crannies of all rooms will enhance the overall look of your living place.

Moreover, our moving out services are considered the most favorite among customers. Everyone prefers changes in life and healthy changes always become a source of ultimate serenity and peace for minds.

So, before unloading your luggage, avail yourself of the opportunity and get a perfect cleanup to your new destination. From sweeping to vacuum, dusting to wipe down baseboards, scrubbing all washroom surfaces to cleaning every corner of the kitchen, we're providing a super-comfortable environment for your new beginning.

Building cleaning

We're on the mission to clean everything by utilizing versatile cleaning strategies that end up as healthful for the environment. With Eco-friendly products, our professionals are paying heed to fulfill all your requirements regarding cleaning.

Although building cleaning is not an easy job, our experts are used to tackling bigger tasks conveniently. We're also providing Child daycare center cleaning services, Ottawa bank cleaning, Ottawa janitorial cleaning, and Ottawa condo cleaning.

For commercial building cleaning services, our well-trained professionals invest every ounce of energy to turn every surface spotless.

Moreover, adjusting the cleaning schedule according to your preferred timing is part of our services. From choosing daily cleaning tasks to weekly or from weekly to monthly, is entirely your choice.

Most importantly, we're passionate to offer premium-quality services within your specified hours. Indeed, you can book your services confidently, and we could assure you quality and satisfaction. Consequently, all your workers will enjoy working in a clean and hygienic environment.

Carpet cleaning

With our exceptional Ottawa carpet cleaning services, you will experience an increase in the lifespan of your carpet. Undoubtedly, carpets are the hub of dust and dirt particles that could cause various allergic reactions and lung-related disorders like asthma.

Indeed, we grab dust from outdoors and take all dust particles indoors that lie on the surface of carpets. Moreover, many bacterial colonies, molds, and allergens adopt carpets as their habitats and become a source of contagious infections especially for the health of kids. Additionally, if you're owning pets then you may have to collect your pet hair after every short interval repeatedly.

On the other hand, dealing with stains of urine of pets and children on carpets is highly challenging. Along with stubborn stains, you have to encounter a bad odor that looms in your living area.

To fix all these issues of carpet maintenance, you may require assistance from professional carpet cleaners. The reason is, most home-based vacuum cleaners can also affect the fabric of your expensive carpets and diminish their durability.

But, our professional carpet cleaning services are committed to using professional vacuum cleaners and professional-grade steam cleaners. As a result, it will enhance the durability of your carpets and will secure you and your family from all infectious agents that live within carpets.

House cleaning

Do you know? An average person spends 87% of time indoors which means that we're spending a substantial part of our lives lying in our bedrooms or couch. So, living in unhygienic and messy conditions will only generate an unhealthy environment for us. As a result, our immune systems become more prone to infections.

To declutter all mess from living surfaces is as compulsory as a balanced diet for our body. Moreover, a clean house will always ameliorate your mood and will be healthy for your mental health.

Besides, your home kitchens and washrooms become the shelter for microorganisms. In these places, they will propagate and become a member of your house without worrying about your permission. Like your family members, they will accompany you in every moment of life. But, their parasitic nature will prove the worst enemy for your health. To shield yourself from all infectious germs, you may require Ottawa cleaning services of Everything cleaning. After availing of our services, you will experience a sensation of happiness and serenity rushing within your mind.

To satiate your requirements, we're also offering Ottawa janitorial cleaning, Ottawa condo cleaning, and Ottawa house cleaning services to change the facelift of your places.

• Fog disinfection COVID-19

Due to the surging waves of COVID-19, everyone should play his leading role to protect himself and the surrounding from this deadly virus. In that regard, utilizing sanitizer, following SOPs, and disinfecting all surfaces of the home will be helpful.

With time, the mortality rate is increasing, and we have to take precautionary measures to deal with pandemics until we get vaccinated. Do you know? Coronavirus survives for 72 hours on a surface and multiplies swiftly when a person with COVID-19 coughs or sneezes and spreads droplets on numerous surfaces. To deal with these emerging situations, you have to disinfect all surfaces of your residential and commercial areas.

For your ease and comfort during critical conditions, we're proving COVID-19 cleaning services at your doorsteps. We're utilizing fogging to disinfect all surfaces as an antiviral solution. To avail of these services, you have to set a specific period when your building is not operational.
