Frances Osborn

Hi to all of you

My name is Fran. I was born in England, but lived for many years in Venezuela and am now based just outside a small town, Calasparra, in Southern Spain.

I have a PDC and diploma in applied permaculture, and I did the teacher training course with Alfred Decker (hi Alfred) in Barcelona in 2021. I now help run PDCs, which up to now have been in Southern Spain and Portugal.

I currently live in a small-scale project with my sister and her partner. With support from friends we have been able to welcome individuals and families, up until now from Latin America, who have needed a safe place to be, while they adjust and find their own way forward, whatever that may be.

I am honoured to form part of this initiative.

Thank you

Fran Osborn
