

I am glad you decided to fill out this interview {Member Username} and let us know more about yourself.

How did you make up your username?

When did you start making music, how did it happen?

Is there a certain message you want to give your audience in your works?

Would you have any difficulty composing a certain type of music or genre?

What programs/instruments/other things do you use?

Do you see music as a career?

Are you working on anything right now? Tell us about it.

Other comments? (This section is for anything else you would want to write)
