

ERP Solutions and Its Benefit | Prism IT

Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) automates the business processes by maintaining the database of information related to business workflow anywhere from human resources to customer relationship management.

ERP like PrismERP can benefit the business workflow by improving business insight from real-time information generated by reports. It can lower operational costs through streamlined business workflow and best management practices. It helps to reduce risk through integrated data integrity and financial controls. Enhancing collaboration from users sharing data in contracts, requisitions, and buy orders.

Types of ERP Solutions Software

Prism ERP

PrismERP handles the complex workflows of producing industries conveniently . More than the workflows, the challenging part is providing flexibility required by small and medium enterprises in the given workflows.

Why Choose Prism ERP solutions?

- Sales order booking & Order Acceptance
- Work order generation
- Material Requirement Planning
- Production plan and scheduling
- Material Indenting – Auto or Manual mode
- Purchase order processing
- Material Inwards,GRN, Material Rejection
- Purchase bill booking
- QC at different stages
- Production – Assembly manufacturing & Process Manufacturing
- Machine scheduling and production process tracking
- Subcontracting – Job Work-out Job work-in
- FG – Storage,Sales, Dispatch,invoicing
- Accounts & Finance
- MIS and Analysis

PrismERP handles the predefined workflows and as well as changes workflows depending on the demand.

Prism can be operated in a cloud environment as well as an in-premise environment based on the client's requirements.

The client can use PrismERP on multiple operating systems like Windows/ Linux or Mac operating systems with ease.

SAP Business One

System Applications and Products or SAP is widely used Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) Software designed for small and medium business enterprises that allows them to manage their primary business function in one place.

Benefits of SAP Business One

Accounting and financial management

SAP Business One can handle all the automated and streamlined financial management with business software that integrates accounting, sales, and purchasing data. Get ready to enhance margins, reduce errors, and drive more profitable deciding .

When a small business or midsize company grows, the complexity of managing its financials also increases considerably. As the 'accounts-only' software may help the business to get started, they may need software that can take that business to the next level, helping to automate everyday financial tasks and integrating them with other business processes. That software is available in the SAP Business One® application.

Customer relationship management (CRM)

You can convert more prospects, keep customers satisfied, and maximise revenue with the help of SAP Business One. CRM tools that is integrated can support all of your sales, service, and marketing activities. It handles the entire cycle right from managing campaigns to tracking leads and thereby administering after sales support.

Warehouse and production management

Inventory can be managed across multiple warehouses in real-time. SAP Business One can assist you track and record stock movements, optimise inventory levels, improve on-time delivery, and even make stock-outs a thing of the past.

Optimized Inventory and simplified production process makes SAP Business One an efficient tool to handle the inventory part right from warehousing to dispatch. An integrated application, SAP Business One reliably synchronizes your inventory, order, and financial data . The software automatically values each goods movement and price and price change, eliminating needing for manual interaction and reducing associated errors and their costs. The solution effectively handles multi-level Bill of fabric (BOMs) containing items and resources. The material requirement planning part gives the precise details of procurement and production requirements.

Purchasing and procurement

You can optimize your entire purchasing process –from planning and order creation to vendor selection, invoicing, and payments with the help of SAP Business One .Not onlyit gives a user-friendly interface to maintain item and vendor data, barcodes etc but also it maintains the detailed information on item purchasing, the purchasing costs and tax information.

Reporting and analytics

To empower employees to urge answers to their most pressing questions in real time SAP Business One helps you with quick and straightforward access to intuitive business intelligence (BI), analytics, and reporting.SAP Business One with HANA – the in-memory processing database engines empowers more Business Intelligence tools for management for his or her analysis.