

Know how well-educated the actors of 'Taarak Mehta...', who make everyone laugh

Raj Express. In the last decade, there will hardly be anyone who has not seen Taarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashmah. Be it Jethalal flirting with Babita ji or his thirty-six figure with his brother-in-law Sundar, the audience is fascinated by every act of this show.

In the show where Dilip Joshi played the role of a less educated businessman, Tanuj played the role of a scientist. Let's see how well-educated the actors of this popular show are.

Dilip Joshi alias Jethalal:

Jetha Bhai, who plays the lead character in the show, has done Bachelor of Computer Application from Narsee Monjee College of Commerce and Economics. He has also received the Best Actor Award from the National Theater of India.

Disha Wakani aka Dayaben:

Dayaben, who is seen illiterate on screen, has earned a degree in drama from Ahmedabad in real life.

Amit Bhatt alias Champaklal Gada:

Tell about Bapuji's studies that he has graduated in commerce.

Mandar Chandwadkar alias Bhide:

Mandar is a mechanical engineer and earlier used to work in Dubai.

Sonalika Joshi aka Madhavi Bhabhi:

Sonalika, who feeds everyone pickles and papads in the show, has completed her B.A. in History, Fashion Designing and Theatre.

Munmun Dutta aka Babita ji:

Jetha Bhai's favorite Munmun Dutta has done Masters in English Literature.

Tanuj aka Iyer:

The show's scientist Iyer has a Diploma in Marine Communication and Theater from Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan Kala Kendra.

Shyam Pathak alias Popatlal:

Shyam Pathak started his studies from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, but due to acting, he continued to become a Chartered Accountant.

Shailesh Lodha aka Taarak Mehta:

Shailesh Lodha has done B.Sc as well as post graduation in Marketing.