It is imperative that we remember who sent the brave Mujahid, leader of the martyrs Qaari Hussain Mehsood ibn al-Shaheed and two members of Tehrik-i-Taliban Zahidullah and Abdul Aziz to Iraq to carry out martyrdom operations.

In conclusion, I would like to remind the Muslim nation that the Mujahideen from Pakistan to Iraq are united, and there are no differences between them, and the names like Tehrik-i-Taliban or ISIS are nothing but a strategy of war and there is no a difference in belief. We are one.

Since 2013 approximately 300 Indian youth from Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Maharashtra and Karnataka have been recruited by Pakistan-based Dar ul Uloom which have joined hands with ISIS.

They are being trained in Pakistan, Iraq and Syria to be Fidayeen.

Sheikh Makmun Hatim, spokesman of Al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula (AQAP) has announced that shortly insha'Allah the Ummah will see the expansion of the Islamic State into the Arabian Peninsula.

This comes only weeks after AQAP declared support for the Islamic State and for its leader Abu Bakr Al-Baghdadi, and showed that it's ready to support the Islamic State in the disputes regarding leadership etc. with Al-Qaeda central (AQC). Along with AQAP the Somalia group Al-Shabaab also declared their support for ISIS, and the group Al-Qaeda in the Islamic Maghreb (AQIM) also declared support for the Islamic State.

The AQAP which is based in Yemen and operates primarily around Yemen as well as in areas of Saudi Arabia, has been the most vocal ally of the Islamic State among the various groups outside of Iraq and Ash-Sham, and has made it clear that it offers it full support, and now is announcing what seems to be an announcement that it will join the Islamic State.

"Our bayah was with Sheikh Usama after his demise we have given the bayah to our ameer Abu Basir who is a close ally and supporter of Sheikh Abu Dua Al Baghdadi we hope to see the islamic state of iraq and al sham expand into yemen"
