

CBSE Class 10 results 2016

CBSE class 10 results 2016 and 12 result 2016 is now stored in gifs. The Central Board of Secondary Education may well start issuing mark sheets and certificates in digi pics as well as well as hard copies that may be stored by students inside their digital lockers, based on a top official inside IT Ministry.

“We are in work with CBSE on digital certificates. The proposal would be to enable students to hold their CBSE PSEB 12th Result certificates within their digital locker. I expect CBSE will issue these certificates within few months,” IT Secretary R S Sharma told PTI.

Also read: CBSE class 10 result 2015 to become announced today, May 28; board confirms on cbse.nic.in, cbseresults.nic.in

The government launched digital lockers on February 10 and within 90 days over 1 lakh folk have started making use of it. Madhya Pradesh (over 24,000), Uttar Pradesh (over 17,000) and Gujarat (over 13,000) are top three states where folks have registered because of this facility.

The thought of digital locker is usually to make people free of carrying files or getting copies attested.

Also read: CBSE class 10th results 2015 to get declared today; Top 10 FAQs

Any person having Aadhaar number can open digital locker go here are the reason for free.

“When a government department is issuing certificates then other government department shouldn't make people run for verifying same document repeatedly. Our priority is always to bring all educational institutes fully briefed for issuing certificates that can be kept in digital locker,” Sharma said.

He added, the Department of Electronics and IT is also dealing with various other entities to issue digital certificates.

“Along with academic certificates we're approaching other government departments which can be involved in issuing just about any certificates. PAN Card, Voter ID are in pipeline,” he explained.

IT Ministry has decided this link to start using the services of Oil PSUs to issue digital LPG books along with state governments for ration cards assuring education board certificates.

“This all are going to be linked to Aadhaar amount of people. People can make documents which want to present to someone. It can be shared by e-mail simply by clicking on the share option button.