Soto Flooring was established in 2011 by Michael Soto, and expanding our way of caring for our customers and improving the quality of our work has been our focus ever since.

Owner Michael had his fair share of unpleasant and unfair contracting services during his time in the industry. He wanted to make a difference to show that it's possible for you, the homeowner, to get both flooring craftsmanship as well as professional services that leave you feeling taken care of and appreciated.

Over the years, we've optimized our practices so that you get your money's worth back into your home. You'll get a friendly, attentive crew that does more than install your floor – you'll have new friends whom you can count on.
