

A humble attempt at a free wheeling translation of @janboehm's poem:

Version 2 - mildly improved for flow ;-)

Erdogan

A silly bollocks, cowardly & repressed that's how Erdogan the President is blessed His presence fermented Pita Gyros scented pig farts will leave you less demented He is a man who beats on girls while his rubber mask he eagerly unfurls His favourite past time is goat molestation as well as minority oppression & castigation Kicking Kurds, beating Christian citizens while he's a kiddy porno watching denizen In in the evenings instead of a good night's sleep it's joyous fellatio with a hundred sheep That's Erdogan - completely sick a president with micro dick Allover Turkey the news now falls about this silly sowe's shriveled balls From Ankara to Istanbul everybody can hear that this man is a closet queer Perverted, louse ridden and zoophile
Recep Fritzl Prikopil
His mind deflated like his single nut he is the star in every gang bang hut Until his burning pee drives him round the bend on goes Recep Erdogan, Turkey's president!
Teh End

Note:

Criminal defamation and "insult" laws are often defended as necessary to prevent alleged abuses of freedom of expression.
They are not, however, consistent with @OSCE norms and their use constitutes an infringement on the fundamental right to free speech.

The German Criminal Code punishes insult in section 185 and defamation in section 187 which is contrary to international standards suggesting civil code.

It is also extremely doubtful that the egos of heads of states need more protection from verbal insult than any other citizen in a free democracy.

Paragraph 103 of the German criminal code and counter parts are extremely undemocratic.
