

I am a teen who is studying in a high school that is located in Malaysia. My purpose of joining this community is to let you know how much I had been suffered during my time as a victim of the bullies (that is whistleblowing). To be honest, I will be putting asterisms to denote cases if they are partially real, just to indicate whether it is 20% real, or 80% real. Just check out my legends (provided here) to understand my markings, However, I might be displaying emotions in my stories despite the nature of whistleblowing.

LEGENDS:

if there are no asterisms, it is 90%-100% true.

FIRST COLLECTION OF STORIES

1. ***** The first encounter with my school bully came when I was coming to my school for the first time 4 years ago. While I was in the class during break hours, a bully came into my class and rudely talking nonsense to me and shouted at me. I immediately take verbal defense ( with full of emotions) and make him run away from the classroom. This bully's name is Goh Wei Loon, who is a boy in the another class but same form level.
2. **** After a few days the story above happens, he came to my class just before I come to school. When I arrived, I am being swiftly tormented by the bad boy. He also touch me with no reasons ( I hate the most when he touch my head) and also "hit and run" attacks on me. Besides that, he also say something like rude words and maybe doing a form of verbal abuse disguised by a joke like "Why are you so stupid" or something like that. This pheomenon last a few days, and I was being "brainwashed" by him for the first time. Bad name calling is also done by him too.
3. ***After a year the incident happened, I possibly get offended by the same tactics by the bully ( and hurt my leg)and started to verbally revenge him (maybe or maybe not), and he immediately run to discipline teacher to lie to him that I made him first (in fact, he is the penultimate perperator from a point of view), and the discipline teacher blame me for partially causing this problem. However, I told the discipline teacher the No.1 story and he make us agreed to not attack each other and just peacefully let go of this matter,but I never go to discipline teacher again when someone bullies me because of victim blaming occured at that time.Unfortunately, this truce ended when he kicked the leg that he had kicked before, and I ended up walking with a bruised leg (and recovered, but hurt again by another boy who is a prefect, I will talk about the bad prefect in the second collection of stories that will be about him).

4. When I was in library reading newspapers, he used his old style verbal abuse to attack me, this particular incident is serving as one of the catalysts to whistleblow the bullies.

5. Finally, he sometimes use nude words to attack me and brainwash me to become another me that is not supposed to be the original "me". This affected me and make me to blend in their "community" by lying that I had done things that they like to do".

SECOND COLLECTION OF STORIES

Let me introduce the second bully: His name is called Chi Choon Keat (徐俊杰) a bully who I had been encountered since I first went into my school for the first time. The wrongdoings of this corrupt prefect can be found below, along with detailed stories of how he hurt my legs ( I had leaved a hint about this in 1st collection).

1.***** I don't exactly know when the first encounter with him looked like, but it seems that when I was reading books (maybe), Chi Choon Keat, sitting behind me, started to provoke me by annoying sounds, provocative gestures and speech, and also unwanted physical contact.

2. ****After a few days after the first encounter, he starts to antagonize me by intensify the provocations and (maybe) inserting rude words and attacked me. I honestly don't know what happened exactly, but after he knew that I played Kaneva at that time, he also utilized some form of Goebbel's "if you talk often a lie, it will "become" a truth" for his addition into perverted form of "brainwashing" disguised as a joke to make me into his submission. Appeal to force fallacy was begun to be used by the nefarious bully to silence my complaints against him with his prefect power (abuse of power of course).

3.***** Shortly few weeks after the event mentioned above, he also started to abuse his power and attack me with increased magnitude. When I was preparing to borrow a homework from a student sitting beside me, he used "appeal to force" to force the student to not give me his homework for reference or the bully will write the student's name into a notebook resembling blacklist. It also seems that his abuse of power ostracized me and played a massive "Stockholm Syndrome" card until the point of every student "hates" me , which was indicated when a chem teacher made a survey.

4.*** Although in some cases when I misspelled his name (and sorry about that), he had his prefect power already, and this is enough for him. But this delusional , paranoid, toxic prefect had gone further from this level, and this is shown when I had one occasion misspell his name and then he just chased me like a mad dog after an English class. He pushed me down and make me hurt my leg badly until the point I have to go to a doctor for a vaccine against tetanus. Although a prefect, he still used such a decent, barbaric way to solve the problem (this is still two wrongs don't make a right because he still have prefect's power to solve the problem without much controversy). I will include a picture link that shows the scars that remained on my leg.

5. *****Let me honestly tell you, that I am fear of brooms, and this issue is a "Cassus belli" for him to bully me. Immediately after he had knew my Achilles Heel, he started to take brooms along with other bullies (maybe include the previous bully mentioned in the previous question and some of the rest will be exposed with his name on my upcoming stories) to bully me. I spent much time running and even going out to the class just to evade them. Besides that, Chi Choon Keat and other bullies love to sabotage my things as well, and he might be the one who had stolen money from my wallet (more details about this, plz become my fans and check out upcoming question). I am tired because of these atrocities made by these packs of bullies, and this event is one of the thing that justified me to speak out the truth as I could.

6.*****After I came back to school because of the broken legs, the ruthless Chi Choon Keat still wanting to bully me despite I am still suffering from that pain. His atrocity also had numerous effects on me, including the emergence of a female bully (who is defying logic and perverted) , who I will expose later.

7. The short term and long term effects because of his endless bullying at that time is the gradual loss of interest into the subjects that is once my favourite (and, according to my psychology, that these subjects might become once again my favourite again, if I had revealed much info about my bullies and making to a point which my stories , including this one, will be making a top result when I search their names). Fortunately, deprogramming by a foreign teacher is made, albeit with some difficulties, that I will be talking about in the upcoming post). Picture about the scars inflicted by him ( and that's the reason why I would like to name shame the bullies)

THIRD STORY COLLECTION

Contrary to the first two collection of stories, this collection of stories will be featuring wrongdoing against me by a multiple number of bullies. These boys are the part of the bullies who had ruined my life the most and make me spending almost three years suffering under them. I will also feature their wrongdoing against other classmate and even teachers. Let me introduce these bullies first: They are Chew Yun Yan, Chew Yi Liang And Kioh Xiao Zhong. The first encounter with them will be listed in the first three stories below.

1.***** First encounter with Chew Yun Yan occurred 4 years ago, when I was having an English class in a multimedia lab, which was held every Friday at that year, I remember. When I was hastily posting some stories on my bullies before I went to my present school (more about the previous bullies I will leak more about them in the 7th post) online, the teacher called me to shut the computer down as the school time was gonna to end at that time. I felt sorry about my stubbornness about this matter, but I am really whistleblowing the nefarious bullies encountered in the previous school at that time. but Chew Yun Yan, a busybody and unsympathetic (unlike the teacher, who had only stood there to call me to shut it down as quick as possible while observing my monitor to see what am I doing), just pulled the plug of the computer. It was the moment where the enmity between him begins.

2.***** For Chew Yi Liang, first encounter with him also occurred 4 years ago, when I was just sitting in the class waiting for the class to start after recess (or maybe just immediately after arriving at school). It was at this time Chew Yi Liang come into my class and started to taunt me, albeit in a more dim fashion, I immediately started to argue to him that why he taunt me and he started to prepare for a fight, but the class monitor managed to avert the situation.

3.***** The first encounter with Kioh Xiao Zhong occurred about one year later the first two encounter (mentioned above) happened. At first, he seems nice to me, and then after a few periods, rudeness started to appear from him, like a time bomb. Enmity had just started at the moment.

4. ***** A few weeks after the encounter with Chew Yun Yan, this egocentric, gaddafic bully started to verbally abuse me, but in a much smaller level. When he founded out that I feared the brooms most (along with Goh Wei Lun, mentioned in the first collection of stories), he started to use brooms to chase me like a mad dog. On one occasion this dirty action had been founded out by a class teacher, who had reprimanded him, but not severely. The bully perverted and (maybe) used red herrings and some other king of logical fallacies to prove his innocent, however, this failed, luckily.

5.**** After the first encounter with Kioh Xiao Zhong, the guy started to rudely converse to me, and also ganged with other bullies (presumbly with Chew Yun Yan) to lock me into the classroom, I used English to told them to stop, but the Kioh Xiao Zhong expressed his anti Western sentiments to me instead.

6.***** Besides targeting me, Kioh Xiao Zhong also targeted other people. In such an instance, he had a quarrel with a classmate who is also riding my school van. This egocentric bully also threatened fight with him, which he loses. However, the classmate is being recorded into the discipline file, even though he was self defending. In additional to that, he had also participated in a torrent of gang bullying.

7.**** Chew Yun Yan also have targeted the other people in my class, too. With his draconian influence on the peeps in my class, nearly every people I knew had been cooperating with him ( in a short and humorous sense, Chew Yun Yan is like a individual Borg which had absorbed these peeps including me into his "collective"). As a result, collective Stockholm syndrome occurs ( which might be the one of the factor instrumental into manipulating the class opinion into against me, as stated in the second collection of stories). We are being forced by that syndrome into cooperating with him and do some of his dirty jobs like pulling someones wedgies and calling other names. Brainwashing by this "Borg" also turned my personality radically. Before I came to this school, I am a boy whose conscience is good, which had been turned by Yun Yan into something similar to him.

8.***** One day, Chew Yi Liang done a nit picking criticism to me. I refuted him, but he beat my face badly.

9.***** Besides that, Yun Yan had also involved in sexual bullying, he also had obscene words in his mouth and always touch part of the body which is not supposedly to be touched ( I also get that by this bully too). Yi Liang and Xiao Zhong also asked me some unmeaningful questions.

10. **** Verbal abuse by Yun Yan actually inflicted many people in my class. On one occasion, he scolded a top student in my class with a very offensive word (###). I am also deeply offended by the verbal abuse by Yun Yan ( and also Yi Liang and Xiao Zhong). They are also narcissist who needs other attention, otherwise they will use their power to ostracize them. Ignoring them will not solve the situation. Appeal to force is a type of fallacy which they like to force others into submission to their hitleresque "regime".

11. **** Yun Yan, Yi Liang and Xiao Zhong also involved in truancy and had been reprimanded severely. However, they just silence the would be whistleblowers . On one occasion I whistleblowed them, but are suppressed by them and humiliated (shooting the messenger) . Their horror ways had affected me, to made me unable to speak the truth to teachers upon being bullied when these bullies are there .

12. Actually, I admit this particular story will be the best scandals of my bullies ever released by me, Why? Because they had been involved in gangsterism. On one such instance Yun Yan used a barbaric and mafia like method to make "talks" and forced other into submission. They had been reprimanded by discipline master, but doesn't stop their will to do bad for a long time. After that, a whistleblower told the school that the trio, along with some "absorbed Borgs", went to a shopping mall in this area and accepted the request to join an underground mafia. As a result, Yun Yan had been expelled from school, but Yi Liang and Xiao Zhong had organised a petition to make Yun Yan remain in school, and forced everyone in the class to sign the petition. My best friend, feared them, also made me to sign it or he will not repair my things ( at the petition time, one of my things is broken).

13. After the staged and bogus petition had been submitted to the discipline master, he came to our class and compared the staged petition to something illogical and seditious ( some of which is indeed the case) and made some of us, who are being coerced to sign the petition (including me) to write an alibi. After submitting it, Yi Liang knew soe of details I wrote through his friends and the bully started to dehumanize me by calling me a snob and stupid, which are indeed his personality.

14. After the expulsion of Yun Yan, Yi Liang seems unchanged, continuing his old ways. Yi Liang had also bullied other people by verbal abuse and dehumanization, particularly in english class. An English teacher also had found out about this and punished him. Yi Liang is an egocentric boy, as the teacher said. The teacher is actually stern and helpful, during an occasion when the bully used brooms to chase me, and the teacher warned him about getting exposed on cctv camera (which is indeed the case, as he chased me into the cctv camera range at that time). Yi Liang is a true coward bully nevertheless , as he just avoided getting attention by her during the parent day in school, and he also hastily made apologize to me after the event stated in story no.8.

15. This year, Yun Yan made a comeback to school, but with conditions. Even though, he still break the conditions and continuing annoying people. He still bully me by his old ways and continuing to dehumanize my friends. He also loved to play cat and mouse game liked he did in the past. Actually there are more stories involving him, but is too numerous to list here. Finally, when he is being ignored upon, he will just verbal taunt them and sometimes cat and mouse game. This showed that he is also a narcissist and ignoring him will not help the situation, which is only applicable to normal and coward bullies like Yi Liang. Roughly two years before, I had been deprogrammed by a foreign teacher who had noticed my personality change after I had missed his homework. I am really thankful to her, but, as a result of the prolonged influence by my bullies, I had experienced some PTSD and hypoglycemic like conditions and making me over concerned and made me temporarily paranoid, until recently I had gained some of my original personality, and these side effects are fading away, which might have been one of the causes that my scores are going badly last year.

FOURTH STORY COLLECTION

This collection of stories will feature a particular bully, like first two questions. The bully which I would like to feature is called Thomas Abraham , a Indonesian student in my school. His Chinese name is 张卫能, for your knowledge.

1. *****Little things I knew about about my first encounter with him, but I had sure that in that encounter, he knew that I am feared of brooms. He played a cat and mouse game by brooms. Besides that, he had also called me with unwanted names and started to taunt me.
2. **** After that encounter, he also knew that I am being brainwashed by my earlier bullies (or maybe knew that I am just like them, which is actually a false personality i was pretending to). He started to instill things like violence and other tings deemed as dirty to me to my mind. Stockholm syndrome taken into effect from this and other abusive actions from him, and I was immediately become a "Matrix Smith" through this "Smith".
3. *****Even that, cat and mouse game is still played by him to make me submissive to him. On one occasion, he took my history book and then hide it on somewhere else. His stupid and mad actions made me exhausted.
4. **** In an English class, he taunted me and played a card of appealing to force. I verbally fight back him and a teacher calm us down. Besides that, he also physically harass me by kicking my pants, which had made a teacher start to resent him.
5. Stockholm syndrome caused by him also made me became nearly as same as him too. For one instance, he incited me to verbally abuse one of his classmates ( coincidentally and ironically, he is also my bully too , whose name is Fu Kim An, I will talk about him in the 6th collection of stories) , and Thomas also incited me to hurt him. I am sorry about that, but these are the things I had done under his influence and mind manipulation , just like Rumkowski under Biebow or perhaps Petain under Hitler.
6. Thomas Abraham is also a playboy, and the worst thing is, he used mind manipulation ad stated on above to do his dirty jobs like gossiping. He also made me to watch something dirty , but at least I had retain even one percent of my original conscience and lied to him that I've watched.

7. **** As soon as he found out that positive mind manipulation doesn't work fully as he expected, this pedophile used a combination of Stockholm syndrome and coercion to make me do his dirty jobs. Thomas Abraham, who is a pedophile, even making me to do something that was totally, totally against my original conscience ( a form of sexual bullying) . I am unable to tell further from that due to cultural taboo, but for your information, he forced me to show something that mustn't be showed to him and a classmate . This event had haunted me, and forced me to become a runaway kid (along with other causes that I will be telling in the 6th collection of story), and I remembered that the date I run away is 26 July 2010. Fortunately I had been sheltered by an Indian family ( who owns a cafe, that I had come across to while running away to a beach) and eventually sent me back home. My mom also went to police station with her friend, and told the police about the matter ( weeks prior, my mom knew this matter from a teacher during parents day, who had told that the pedophile might be forcing me to do that dirty job, which is, indeed the case , albeit it might involve Stockholm Syndrome from a viewpoint, though).

8. After the runaway, this nefarious, paranoid, commie like, delusional, apathic and pedophilic bully still annoy me but at small scale.

9. Until last year, almost no major events involving him and me. But since last year, he started to harass me by making a voice like a wolf. I had suffered and ignored him as could as I can, and I verbally self defense against him, and this bully immediately chased me into a corner and forced me. But luckily, my another Indonesian friend passed by and the bully just run like a gaddafic mad dog. As like Yun Yan, he is unmuteble even by ignoring him. Because he had stole my conscience and made me to do dirty things ( either using Stockholm syndrome or coercion, from a viewpoint) and his identity as a pedophilic bully, I am justified to name and shame him, and I might be using some alternative dispute sites to tell the world how bad he is. And then if he still dare to bully me again, a video containing the audio version of the story will be came out across the web. Besides that, along with Chi Choon Keat, he might be the suspect of stealing my money.

UPDATE: He had left my school recently.

FIFTH STORY COLLECTION

This collection of stories will feature multiple amounts of bullies, but I will compress the story of a bully into one particular story. I will just talk about the summaries instead of fine detailed inscription. For even minor characters, I will just combine all these characters into one story. Here, I will talking about my bullies who are wholly composed of foreign students. These are minor characters involved bullying against me.

1.***** A Thai bully called Thanthom Thotsagool (达成) had been bullying me for long time before he eventually left his school. First encounter with him occurred when he was about to use brooms to strike me, after he was being informed of my Achilles heel. After that, he had also verbally abused me (eg name calling) and sometimes physically abused me (eg touching my head). This barbaric bully even made offensive body language to me by farting against me. How barbaric and uncivilized he is.

2.*****A boy, called Chayutthon Kim An (猜金安) is also my greatest bully. At first, he just name calling me, but at a mild level. Then, he brainwashed another Thai classmate ( who had been riding my school van for one time, and we even shared our email address) and made him turn against me. Afterwards, things came worse when they started touching my head (something taboo in both my opinion and Thai culture). I started to use annoying music to fend them off, but sometimes reached past the limit due to the effects of Thomas Abraham (mentioned in the third question). They also do nit picking criticism on me, especially my eating style. Fortunately, they had left the school.

3.*****Weeranat Tangsapsathit (陈福财), Peerawat Wangprasert (王士元), Pongsin Lertchawalit (罗开阳), Chatinon Nonthaphet (程迪 and Marfin Fandawa (黄俊英) also loves to bully me by using verbal tactics. Weeranat Tangsapsathit also had tormented me and interrupted me during English class, any dispute with him is futile, as he will appeal to force (taking broom) to silence me. Marfin Fandawa also had yelled me gaddafically and name called me.

4.***** A big but bad guy called Warot Somboonsuk (傅金宝) also harmed me. Sometimes he will also physically abuse me by holding my hands tightly, not letting me to go. I beg him to release, but are tormented instead by another two bullies ( I will describe about them in next collection of the stories).

5. Furthermore, another Siamese bully, whose identity so far could be identified by me with his first two words of his Chinese name, if arranged from left to right (that is 文 and 祥), also had tormented me similar to above mentioned bullies. Besides that, some small Thai boys (but their personality is like Weeranat Tangsapsathit) also had physically abuse me, and they sometimes run like cowards afterwards. I also had been bullied by some Thai girls too , whose personality are like Stephanie Teoh Hui Tze (she's a bully, detailed info in the next collection of stories). After these pack of girls bullied me, I was immediately tormented by Tan Ze Hang, whom I will expose afterwards. You might notice that I am relating some unnamed bullies to one of known bullies by linking their personality, this is done to let all people know that bullying sometimes can be detrimental to the point of horrible backfire. These bullies had been wiping out my feeling of xenophile (this developed since I am a child). So, they deserved to be despised. Furthermore, in the time of writing, I might be missing other bullies as well, presumably because they are very minor characters in the whole stories. But, the whole collection of the stories might be giving you an image of these unnamed and undescribed bullies.

SIXTH STORY COLLECTION

In this collection I will feature all of my known female bullies here. I will just feature every one major bully in every one story I might be using words and fallacies that you might not understand, so plug he don't mind to google it if you can't understand specific fallacies or words. Now lets introduce these female bullies

1. When I had first arrived to my present school (I switched school), I had inadvertently annoyed a girl (and sorry for that), but had provided a good opportunity to a girl called Khoo Chan Ling. Little I'd known what happened in the first encounter with her, but after some time, he started to verbally taunt me and isolate me . Soon, after she learned my Achilles heel (fear of brooms), she started to use brooms against me, sometimes teaming up with other bullies to bully me. Egocentric and absent minded, she had one time use brooms to pollute my belongings, when my friend tried to stop, appeal to force was used by her to fend off disturbance. Khoo Chan Ling also had teamed up with other bullies (for example Elmo Chong, which will be in the next story) to go against me. I heard them said something like they have three people and I am only one. But fortunately, Internet had helped me get past the limitation to go against them (like whistleblowing). Besides that, she had also betrayed me about I was storing my books in my classroom (which, in reality, her friends had also store their books in exotic locations like ceiling and under the closet). A teacher (can be known as Nenek Teoh), heard their story, and then confiscate my books. This is the catalyst that made me run away (mentioned in the fourth collection, go to my Yahoo Answers profile to check it out). She also brainwashed me into a guy who is interested in illogic and hedonist things like entertainment.

2. Smith Elmo, mentioned above, also had bullied me by using verbal and online bullying. First encounter with her occurred when he had taken my photo without my permission with his smart phone in class. I disputed with her, and she replied with sentence containing broken window fallacy. Next, she had also name called me and then defamed me online, saying I had done something wrong ,but in reality, I didn't, if judged from willingness, and they might had been forced me to do so, and then used half truth and some bad words to defame me. I am sorry that I am unable to capture the snapshot of the offending post, but its a nirvana fallacy if you just judged the cyber bullying by Smith Elmo to be false. In fact, I am 100x certain and sure that them offending post had existed for some time before being taken off.

3. Besides that, if this girl is compared to the above two bullies, these two bullies is more like a small ugly fish. This girl is known as Stephanie Teoh Hui Tze (张慧思). For this girl, her bullying certainly devastate me psychologically. First encounter with her occurred 4 years ago, when I was riding a van with her on board. At that time, I was just talking about some topics to peeps (or maybe to driver) on board ( or maybe just singing Michael Jackson songs to a guy on board who'd like it ,though I don't exactly what was happened at that time), and she immediately interrupted me and just childishly accused me for annoyed her but actually, it is the first nit picking criticism done by her, as the enmity between her and me has started. Next, after some time later, Stephanie Teoh Hui Tze interrupt me and my friend again during our conversation about anti communism in the school hall. The egocentric, paranoid girl immediately scolded me for talking about her and even told one of her friend to ask my friend what was our conversation topic, so my friend started to notice this delusional girl as well, albeit at a very low level. Besides that, she had also name called me in her nit picking criticism against me. She had even at one time exaggerates the number of people resentful of me and then just comparing it to something even more worse ( actually her statistics are based on some deception and half truth, just like cherry picking). In addition, she had also taunted me after I was being bullied by a big and bad guy (mentioned in the fourth collection) and devastated me. Furthermore, she displayed female supremacist views on an occasion involving opening door for her. She just like a spoiled child that need every boy to open car door to her, including me who actually had some problems on the bones on my hands and fingers (and made me can't write properly). Even that, I was not spared from this feminonazi as she threatened me to open the car door to her or face ridicule from all of people on board the van (appeal to force and ridicule). The ridicule would be about not being a gentlemen ( a mixture of no true Scotsman fallacy), and then they will deem me as a dog and not a human (dehumanization).I tried to report this to the driver (also a teacher), but he just dismissed it and used something like red herring, whataboutism and thought terminating cliché to terminate my cognitive dissonance about her. As a result of that, I had experienced a level of anxiety and anger in a night until I told my friends the whole story of the bully (which are now told on here). Besides that, she had also ridiculed me for not receiving a gift during Valentine's day (this is just a hedonist crap), and the female backseat driver also "explained" to me that her nit picking criticism is a "guide" for the etiquette for my future "marriage", which I despised because of its nature of being hedonist crap and its limitation of personal rights. Therefore, she is just giving a medicine to a patient who don't need it. There's a myth called "Men's are stronger while women's are weaker". However, this myth becomes liar paradox and false generalization when it comes to the above three cases. Therefore, these female bullies had utterly failed to justify their aggression against me.

SEVENTH COLLECTION

In the collection I will feature virtually all the rest of my major and minor bullies in here, including one time bullies that ravaged me more than 4 years ago. Now lets introduce these bullies

- 1.***** A bully, which is now a classmate and friend of Chi Choon Keat (mentioned in my earlier collection of stories) and is known by me by only his Chinese name 袁国杰. I don't exactly know the circumstances of the first encounter with him, but I think that he might have some prejudice with me before that encounter. Shortly after that, he, along with his friends, engaged in a bullying campaign against me by name calling, unwanted physical touch, and exploiting my fear by pretending to attack me.
- 2.***** In 2009, two guys, known by Chinese name as 黄志彬 (Huang Zhi Bing) and 秦宝强, bullied me. But contrary to most of my bullies, these guys used euphemisms and deception to cover up their bullying. For instance, they tell people to not to bully me and at the same time, hit me and pushed me, I would like to say that this ironic bullies are more like a true hypocrites.

3.**** Hendy (陈洪城) and Santos had been bullying me most via verbal method like utilizing vulgar words )and in a rare instance, setting me up to fail) for a long time, although its intensity is less than most of my other bullies, and circumstances of first encounter with them is largely unknown.

4.**** A guy, known as Nicholas Lim Zheng Yuan, had been in odds with me since I studied my current school. But, contrary to most of my case involving being victim to a bully, I would think that I had partially caused this enmity, because I had reported him after he had done an out of line joke about a teacher, and I think he need to be rectified by any means possible. After that, he had been engaging in both verbal and physical abuse campaign against me, including kicking, ad hominem attacks against me with vulgar words, punching me, and by exploiting my Stockholm syndrome (as a result of suffering under a high intensity of torments and abuses from my bullies) whether knowingly and unknowingly, collaborated with another bad guy called Melvin Goh (吴沅顺) to take obscene photos of me. So, now, I sometimes think that they are more like egocentric and erotophilic neantherthals because of this.

5. ***** Khor Zi Zeng, Gary Law Chuan Meng, had been engaging in abuse campaign against me since long ago, with methods like name calling, appeal to force, ad hominem and maybe much more.

6.***** A Thai guy, known as Patcharaphon Srimasap (林丰顺), had been bullying me since about 4 years ago (dated from the time this story collection is written). First encounter with him occurred when he was asking crazy questions to me, which is in reality a disguised name calling campaign to me. After that encounter, he had started a high intensity of physical, emotional and verbal abuse against me. The matter further worsens when he touches my head (forbidden in Thai culture and a taboo in my mind), and other than that, he forced me to kiss his toes when I "offended " his friends (in reality, most of these things that "offended" his friends were my act of self defense to counter their torments against me). Upon asking my teacher, I had found out that Thai culture has no such thing, so from that perspective, Patcharaphon seems to be more like a megalomaniac, gaddafi and assadic neantherthal.

7. If compared to my other bullies, this guy can be regarded as one of the worst bullies ever encountered in my life. He is called Tan Ze Hang (陈子恒). His first despicable act against me was done in 3 year s ago (from the time that this story collection is written), when he rudely intervenes during my conversation to someone else in my school van ( he rides the same van with me) and tell me to shut up (something like thought terminating cliché). From that moment onwards, he had use ad hominem attacks against me (initially calling me bald , but now he's calling me with names that is regarded worse than initial one). There are 3 waves of abuse campaign done by him to me, but physical, emotional and verbal abuse are all used in these campaigns. The first wave ends after my runaway to a seaside cafe (detailed in 4th story collection), and a brief period of my peace of mind exists, at least until the second wave begins, after he had found out that I had picked up some bad words (and I now feel sorry about that, but this is not the end of it, since dismissing this issue by that perspective is more like committing ad hominem tu quoque fallacy, as two wrongs don't make one right and he had instead used emotional and ad hominem bullying to rectify me). During his second wave bullying, he had found out that I harbors pro American feelings, so this campaign was largely political motivated. He attacked everything related to USA, and used a usual communist anti american rant to denounce the country. What he didn't care is if America didn't exist as it did today, there will be no First Amendment, and he might had been beheaded for uttering a single sentence that is deemed oppositional. After I had make this clear to him, during a showdown near my home, the second campaign abruptly ended. His 3rd wave bullying began, when I had tired up of rude rants for Stephanie Teoh Hui Tze (mentioned in part 2 of the 6th story collection) and refused to do something under her unruly order. Shortly after that, he began attacking me with upgraded ad hominem attacks, this time involving sexist rants. The fallacies used by him included denying the antecedent, appeal to ridicule, appeal to tradition, appeal to consequences, red herring, faulty equivalence and maybe much more. His hypocrisy is further shown when I tried to intervene in his wannabe bullying against another guy in my van, he lambasted me with thought terminating cliché such as "Mind your own business", which is actually a fallacy when coming in terms of human rights and morality, and this fallacy had been often used by dictators to sway away concerns about their oppression of their citizens. When I tried to reason with him, he immediately rebuked me by verbally attacking me and moves the goalposts by daring me to intervene in a crime done under my eyes. OK, you might think that I might be wrong by intervene in his case, but this is more like his just world hypothesis, even if we don't have enough physical power to directly intervene, we can still make detour intervention, like making call to the police, and if we can intervene on politics by voting down our undesired politician, why can't we just intervene in a simple but bad matter when we have power to make it, that is how democracy and compassion works. As the saying goes, To sin by silence when they should protest makes cowards of men. So, it is very ironic for someone to intervene on my wrongdoing and said I should have compassion and politically, vote for opposition parties in yearning for democracy, but I can't just reciprocate when he does a mistake, even it is a compassion to stand up for his victims. I would think that this guy is no more than hypocritical, gaddafic, paranoid, neanderthalistic bastard. His neanderthalistic and savage attitude further shown, when he used antirationalism and appeal to consequence ( something like "I don't understand your meaning, please just shut up or I will harm you) to rebuke my further attempt to try to reason with him, and after 2 days, he physically abused me by hitting my head (as I said earlier, it is taboo for me), leading me to believe that he can't be rectified and is no more than pigheaded ape.

8.***** in 2009, a thief, whose name is unknown, repeatedly stole my money from my Arsenal styled wallet, forcing me to live in fear. Although, to the time this collection is written, his identity is unknown, but I feel that he is more like a Neanderthal pig just like Tan Ze Hang,

Thomas Abraham (collection #4) and Chew Yun Yan (collection #3). Initial suspects of stealing my money might be Thomas Abraham and Yun Yan.

9.***** Three guys, namely Soh Zi Hao (苏梓皓), Ang Chun Meng, and Png Jia Le (方家乐), had been bullying me for a long time. Their first encounter with me was when Zi Hao came across me and ridicule me for not looking good (lookism) and fat (weightism) and I done a verbal self defense. After a few days later, Zi Hao, Chun Meng and Jia Le encircle me and began a torrent of physical and verbal abuse against me, and they even want to request a guy to beat me. From that, they are no more like savage, brutal and gaddafic apes.

10.***** Before I entered my current school, I was studying in a region in South Malaysia, and during an initial period in my previous school, I was being bullied by a guy, whose name is Wu Gi Deon (吴启甸). My enmity and him began when I am talking about topic that Wu Gi Deon didn't understand with someone else, Wu Gi Deon and his minions overheard that and made an incomplete conclusion that I am alien (obviously I am not). After that, Wu Gi Deon and his accomplices began to abuse me in a variety of ways, including hitting my head, splitting saliva on me while walking downstairs, name calling, ridicule disguised as joke, attacking me with broom, and even hitting me up, prompting my mother go to school to understand the situation. Other than that, a girl, whose mindset is like Wu Gi Deon's, also hit my head and name called me, so now I would think that Wu Gi Deon, his accomplices and the girl is nothing more than commie and savage apes, even most of my hatred for them dissipates after I left that school.

11.***** Besides that, these guys, known as Ong Yong Jing (王溶进), 李江幸 (English name unknown) and Chee Ping Yao (徐彬曜) had a bad history of bullying me by using verbal, emotional and physical abuse tactics. But 李江幸 is more worse, because he had attacked my head using his shoes (a great taboo for me), and even to the point of using a communist tactic known as "big character poster" to conduct a smear campaign against me (in that poster, he used ad hominem attack against me by calling me retarded). His act had left me the impression that he is no more than a savage, amoralistic commie. Besides that, another commie known as 黎晓培 (English name unknown), is also as extreme as typical fenqing (a Chinese word to describe an angry youth who is pro communist), thought I had offended him once (and sorry about that).

12.**** About 5 or 6 years ago (I don't remember the exact time), when I was a child, I was playing in a playground that is located in a famous shopping centre in my country's capital city. While doing that, I encountered 2 girls occupying an area that I want to go to. I asked their permission to take playing balls near their area, and they agreed. Shortly after that, I wanted to return to area to take more balls (for further playing with kids there), and they immediately disagree and used ad hominem tu quoque to smear me and incite others to go against me. Now I still think the girls are savage Neanderthals because of that.

All of my bullies had caused me serious emotional damage due to their atrocities, and I just can't let it go because some of them had done heinous acts against me, so, from that perception, I felt that I have the responsibility to expose them to let the public to know some of their true personalities.
