

Small Business Voicemail - Is It important?

Small business voicemail is perfect for the entrepreneur running two or three small businesses while trying to juggle a family and occasionally eat and sleep as well. If you have a small business but your looking to take you customer retention to the next level you need this. Are missed calls a problem? Not anymore. The best part is that you can work from your car, the super market, ballet recitals, the possibilities are numerous. No matter where you receive calls your customers will think you are in the office, and that's working smart.

Other small business voicemail systems offer a similar service (although not with nearly as many features) but they charge and arm and a leg. No one knows better than me that it's hard starting out. You basically have two jobs, a day job and then the business that you are passionate about. If you stick in the trenches opportunity will eventually call and you don't want to miss it because you were having dinner or attending your child's soccer game. But you also don't want to be chained to your desk all day. With this voicemail solution you'll never have to worry about missing a call about.

The point is that you don't need to be in the office twenty four hours a day, seven days a week. You simply need to be reachable. By giving your potential clients your office number, you have a barrier around your personal life so they don't bug you, but you want to seem professional as well. That's where voicemail comes in. Small business voicemail. You need to be reachable, whether you're in the bathroom or outside in the garden, and voicemail allows you do that.

Now you haven't heard the best part, not only do we offer a better service than our competitors, we offer it for less. That means we offer the best service. Many voicemail companies will charge you upwards of $300 a month for their services. We charge $50 a month, that's the bottom line. And that's not for a starter account, it's limitless. All our services, all the time, for only fifty dollars a month.

This is literally the hottest deal around and subscriptions are only open for a short period of time so sign up while there are still available slots.